CHARITY OF THE MONTH - NARS

The Norfolk Accident Rescue Service is our local emergency medical charity. The doctors and paramedics of NARS are volunteers who offer their time to help those who suffer serious injury or acute illness. The Ambulance Service dispatches NARS staff with their specially equipped vehicle to the most serious and life-threatening incidents. Without NHS or government funding they rely on charitable donations to maintain the service and they have asked for our support. Thank you.

THIS WEEK ...

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

*Not just us, O Lord, but may the whole world be inspired
with the perennial dew of your love and mercy,
to follow the path of your Word. Amen.*

DURING THE WEEK

SUNDAY Let us pray for those who are unwell. We also pray for those recently bereaved. Bring your comfort, Lord, to those who mourn.

MONDAY Let us pray for the people of the USA following the mid-term elections last week which have shown such passionate divisions across the states. Pray for tolerance, understanding and respect to be shown by political leaders of all parties, especially over the issues of immigration, gun laws and health.

TUESDAY Give thanks for the news of Andrea's curacy at Mattishall following her ordination as deacon next June. Pray for her and her husband as they adjust to this new phase in their lives and for our Church Council and leaders as plans for Andrea's successor are put into action.

WEDNESDAY Confirmation classes for both adults and young people have been taking place over past weeks. The Confirmation Service is on Wednesday 5th December. Let us pray for all those being confirmed.
